
CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
Abbreviations in Notes	ix
Illustrations	xi
i. Figures in the Introduction	xi
ii. Images for “The Humours of Parliament”	xiii
iii. Appendix II: Images Reported as Shown in “Humours” but Not Referenced in the Extant Text	xxi
INTRODUCTION	1
I. HARRY FURNISS: LIFE IN ART	4
1. Furniss and the Tradition of British Political Caricature	5
2. Art and Craft	11
3. Image-Making: From Observation to Publication	17
II. POLITICAL CULTURE IN THE LATER NINETEENTH CENTURY	23
1. Political Participation and Electoral Display	23
2. Political Communication	25
3. Caricature and the Politics of Personality	32
4. Political Education	43
III. FURNISS AND THE POLITICS OF THE 1880s AND 1890s	51
1. The Grand Old Man	52
2. Ireland and Home Rule	54
3. Women	58
4. What “Humours” Left Out	63

IV. THE CREATION AND PERFORMANCE OF "HUMOURS"	65
1. Origins: From Lecture to Entertainment	65
2. The Magic Lantern Show	70
3. Furniss as Platform Performer	83
4. London and the Provinces, 1891–92	89
5. Audiences	101
V. "HUMOURS" ABROAD	109
1. The American Lecture Circuit	109
2. The North American Tour, 1896–97	112
3. The Southern Hemisphere Lecture Circuit	120
4. The Australian Tour, 1897	126
VI. EDITORIAL PRINCIPLES	135
1. The Text	135
2. The Images	138
"THE HUMOURS OF PARLIAMENT": THE EXTANT TEXT	141
APPENDICES
I. HARRY FURNISS, "PREPARING TO LECTURE" (THE DAILY GRAPHIC , 23 APRIL 1891)	269
II. IMAGES REPORTED AS SHOWN IN "HUMOURS" BUT NOT REFERENCED IN THE EXTANT TEXT	275
III. UK ITINERARY, 1891	283
IV. NORTH AMERICAN ITINERARY, 1896–97	287
V. AUSTRALIAN ITINERARY, 1897	289
VI. DRAMATIS PERSONAE	291
Bibliography	305
Index	315