

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	vii
Abbreviations	viii
Acknowledgments	ix
Preface	xi
ONE • Reading Ovid's Fasti	1
The Author and His Work	1
Aetas Ovidiana	7
The Fate of Ovid's Severed Book	23
TWO • Fifteenth-Century Revival	29
Time and Place	29
Teaching Particulars	45
The Dedication of the Fasti	50
THREE • Commentary and Professional Identity	63
An Invitation to Comment	63
Aggravations of Print	73
Primacy and Print	87
Authorship	95
FOUR • Antiquarianism I: The Roman Academy, the Fasti , and a New Historicism	101
Ovid as Guide to the City	101

Context: The Roman Academy	106
The Earlier Generation of Antiquarians	116
The Fasti and First-Hand Observation in Rome	128
Travel and Testing Auctoritas	140
FIVE • Antiquarianism II: Christian Fasti and Papal Connections	151
On Superstition and Magic	151
The Roman Academy and Anniversaries	155
The Old and New Rome	166
Propaganda for the Church	175
AFTERWORD	187
APPENDIX I • Renaissance Commentaries on Ovid's Fasti	195
APPENDIX II • Comparison of Manuscript Glosses in Vat. lat. 1595, Ottob. lat. 1982, and Vat. lat. 3263	199
Bibliography	205
Indices
General Index	227
Index Locorum	236
Index Manuscriptorum	239