

Contents

Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction	xv

PREPARING TO GO TO COLLEGE

1 My First Checking Account Building money-management experience with a checking account before leaving for college	3
2 First in the Family Gathering information about potential college choices, seeking out experienced help, and student financial aid resources	9
3 Budgeting for College Creating a realistic spending plan, simple ways to monitor spending, and understanding your financial nature and personal spending patterns	21

WHILE IN COLLEGE

4 Facts of a Financial Life The basics of money management so you don't have to learn the hard way	33
---	----

5	Know What You Owe	Ways to determine how much you can safely afford to borrow for your education, being smart about choosing your loan package, and the consequences of dropping out of school	45
6	Credit Card Phobia	The pros and cons of credit cards so you can be cautious about credit cards without being afraid of them	55
7	Spend, Spend, Spend	The pitfalls of trying to keep up with others who have more money, techniques for dealing with this, and how ignoring the rules for debt and student loans can change your life	64
8	Building a Credit History	Why you need a good credit history, how your credit score is determined, and how to ensure you leave college with a good credit rating	73
9	Car Crazy	How to make decisions on acquiring those extra things you want but may not need for college	80
10	I'll Think About It Tomorrow	The dangers of ignoring financial responsibility and how to cope with the habit of procrastination	89
11	Now Where Did I Put That?	What documents to save, how to store them, and security issues for your sensitive financial information	96

AFTER COLLEGE

12	What's Next?	Financial planning for life after school—establishing priorities, debt payoff plans, savings plans, and retirement plans	107
13	Investment Basics	First steps in starting an investment program	119

BEFORE, DURING, AND AFTER COLLEGE

14	Your Personal Money Philosophy
	Developing principles to guide you through your financial life	131
15	Your Story
	Recording your money-management experiences as a way to pinpoint your financial strengths and weaknesses	136
16	A Note to Parents
	Financial considerations for parents with college-age children and ways to help their student understand money-management issues	147
17	A Postscript to Grandparents
	Ideas for grandparents who want to aid their college-bound grandchildren—financially or in other ways	156
	Glossary of Financial Terms	161
	Helpful Apps and Websites	169
	Index	173