THE THEORY AND INTERPRETATION OF NARRATIVE SERIES
Understanding Narrative

EDITED BY James Phelan
and Peter J. Rabinowitz

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY PRESS
COLUMBUS
CONTENTS

Introduction: Understanding Narrative 1
James Phelan and Peter J. Rabinowitz

1. Strolling, Touring, Cruising: Counter-Disciplinary Narrative and the Loiterature of Travel 17
Ross Chambers

2. Generic and Doctrinal Politics in the Proletarian Bildungsroman 43
Barbara Foley

3. Narratives of Bourgeois Subjectivity in Mozart’s Prague Symphony 65
Susan McClary

4. The Ethics of Forms: Taking Flight with The Wings of the Dove 99
Wayne C. Booth

5. Picturing Spectatorship 136
Judith Mayne

6. “How Did You Know He Licked His Lips?”: Second Person Knowledge and First Person Power in The Maltese Falcon 157
Peter J. Rabinowitz
Contents

7. Naturalizing Molloy 178
   Thomas G. Pavel

8. Travel Narrative and Imperialist Vision 199
   Mary Louise Pratt

9. Present Tense Narration, Mimesis, the Narrative Norm, and the Positioning of the Reader in Waiting for the Barbarians 222
   James Phelan

    Elizabeth Langland

Contributors 273

Index 277