Adams, John, 15, 16
Adams, John Q., 51
Alcott, Bronson, 49, 59
Alden, Henry M., 180, 181
Aldrich, Thomas Bailey, 179, 181
Allen and Ticknor, 171
American Company of Booksellers, 43
American Museum, 18, 79
American Publishers' Circular, 183
American Publishing Company, 312
American Quarterly Review, 79
Anthon, Charles, 87, 90, 91
Appleton and Co., D., 299, 310
Arcturus, 94
Arthur, Chester A., 197
Arthur, T. S., 314
Association of Booksellers, 43
Atlantic Monthly, 164, 170, 178, 180, 187, 262, 303, 309
Atlantic Souvenir, 79
Authorship, early American: amateurism in, 24; and anonymity and aristocratic tradition, 6-10, 19, 94, 95, 292; as commercial venture, 29-36, 68-69; and competition of English, 19-21, 29-31, 44, 73-74, 79-80, 86-87, 285-86; democratic psychology of, 9, 10; development of, as profession, 14-48, 68-69, 77, 108-9; and discounted books, 44-45, 286; influence of romanticism on, 49, 57-58, 61-66; and magazine market, 74; and publisher relations, 75-79, 106; professional characteristics of, 3, 104; and royalties, 30-33, 44-45, 69, 72, 75, 113-14, 158-59, 193-94; as secondary occupation, 5-28, 57, 68-69, 103-19, 196-99, 295; and self-financing, 5, 8, 33, 48, 76-78, 156, 293, 294; and status, 30, 66, 128-29, 262-81; and subscription, 8-9, 18, 21, 38-39; unpaid-for work in, 12, 289-90
Baird, H. C., 174
Bancroft, George, 62, 118, 170
Barlow, Joel: and aristocratic tradition, 5-7; and copyright law, 5-6; democratic attitude of, 9-10; as first would-be professional, 28; as "message" writer, 105
Barnum, P. T., 171, 293, 315
Bemis, James D., 37
Benjamin, Park, 172, 175, 234
Bennett, James Gordon, 171
Bentley, Dr. William, 37
Billings, Josh, 308, 314
Bird, Robert M., 79
Blackwood's, 238
Boker, George Henry, 101, 174, 314
Bonner, Robert E., 66, 151, 171, 274, 293, 299, 308-9, 315
Book trade: and cheap editions, 7-8, 74, 82, 102, 285-86, 299; and discounting, 9, 44, 286; and early stores, 37, 38; early volume of, 35; and educational growth, 303-6; as industry, 186; monopolies in, 32, 34, 40-43; and peddling, 18-20, 35, 36; and prices, 9, 12, 13, 21, 27, 30-33, 44, 45, 50, 74, 75.
Book trade—Continued
126-28; publishers as retailers in, 169; regulation of, 43; and rental books, 19, 21, 26-28, 37; and reviewer scandal, 172-86; sectional, 35-39, 131, 298-303; and subscription, 8-9, 18, 21
Boston Atlas, 176, 184, 185
Boston Bee, 176
Boston Courier, 173
Boston Daily Evening Traveller, 181, 182, 183
Boston Globe, 178
Boston Times, 177
Boston Transcript, 176, 178, 179
Boucicault, Dion, 57
Bradford and Inskeep: bankruptcy of, 48; branch offices of, 38; as buyers of Port Folio, 17
Bradley, Benjamin, 302
Brevoort, Henry, 32
Brontë, Anne, 176
Brontë, Emily, 234
Brook Farm, 50, 52, 60
Brown, Charles Brockden: as amateur essayist, 24-25; compromises of, as writer, 27-28; fictional form of, 267-68; as first professional, 24; and Godwinian formula, 25-26; relations of, with Caritat, 26-27; and serial novel, 26
Brownson, Orestes, 55, 57
Bryant, William Cullen: and Graham's Magazine, 109; images of "Thanatopsis," 110; income of, 109; as newspaperman, 109; as unsold poet, 110-11; see also 69, 71, 77, 100-101, 169-70, 289-90
Bulwer, Edward George (Bulwer-Lytton), 93
Burton, William E., 87
Byron, George Gordon, Lord, 29, 30, 31, 234, 285, 293

Carey, Henry C., 45, 78
Carey, Mathew: and advertising, 47; and Atlantic coastal trade, 35-38; as "author's publisher," 77-78; branch offices of, 38; and "correspondent" and "exchange" systems, 42-44; as distributor, 18-19; as editor of American Museum, 79; and exploitation of English successes, 31; and publication of Charlotte Temple, 20; as regulator of book trade, 43-44; and Sketch Book, 32-34; and subscription of Susannah Rowson, 21; and trade prices, 45; and Wieland and Ormond, 27
Carey and Hart, 159-60, 162, 172-73, 174-75
Carey and Lea, 47, 70; as "author's publishers," 77-78, 80-81; and cheap books, 81-82; and exploitation of English successes, 79-80; and "formula" standards, 82; and mass sales, 81; as publishers of Poe, 74; relations with Cooper, 75-76, 80-83; and strength as fiction publishers, 79-80
Carey-Lea-Blanchard, 169, 170
Caritat, H. (rental library, publisher), 26, 27
Carleton, G. W., 179-80
Carlisle, David, 15-16
Carlyle, Thomas, 60, 233
Case binding, 46
Channing, William Ellery: as agrarian, 54; as friend of labor, 61-62; on industrial poverty, 52-53, 61; and theory of self-culture, 55-56
Charleston Courier, 174
Childs, George W., 177
Christian Examiner, 176
Clemens, Samuel Langhorne; see Twain, Mark
Cobb, Sylvanus, Jr., 308, 314
Cobbett, William, 22
Cogswell, Joseph, 118
Colburn, Henry, 73
Coleridge, Samuel Taylor, 49
Conkling, Roscoe, 197
Connecticut Wits, 5, 9-10
Conrad (publisher), 38
Constable and Company, 29
Cooper, James Fenimore, 267, 268, 269, 286, 293, 294, 295, 296, 309, 312, 313; antagonism of, toward bourgeoisie, 66; businesslike outlook of, 73, 83; and competition, 44, 74-75; and critical opinion vs. popularity, 74-75;
early profits of, 33; establishment of literary profession by, 47, 48; entente with publishers, 75–76, 77–78, 80–82; fortunate timing and success of, 73–74; heyday of, 38–39; royalties of, 75, 76; professional production of, 68–70; as propagandist, 82, 205–96; rejection of criticism by, 83; and revision of work, 71–72; self-respect of, 72–73; significance of, as personality, 68; structure of novels of, 70–71; works of, in stereotype, 46
Copyright, 5–7, 20, 31–32, 76, 81–82, 103, 128, 158, 192, 289–90, 293, 312–13
Curtis, George William, 181, 245, 257, 280, 299, 308, 311
Cushing and Appleton, 37, 117

Dana, Richard Henry, 44, 77, 102, 170, 208, 239, 265
Democratic Review, 242, 248
Dennie, Joseph: and essay-periodical, 14–15; and “Lay Preacher” sermons, 15; Port-Folio, 16–17; and Philadelphia base, 16–18; priority of, as professional, 28; as reactionary, 14–17
Derby and Jackson, 179
Derby, J. C., 185
Dial, 50
Dickens, Charles, 74, 80, 93, 127
Dickinson, Anna, 299, 306
Disraeli, Benjamin, 45, 74
Dix and Edwards, 200
Dublin Review, 242
Dunlap, William, 79
Dutton and Wentworth, 179
Duyckinck, Evert A., 230, 243, 254, 258; and Arcturus, 94; and Moby-Dick, 242, 248–49; and Poe’s tales, 90
Dwight, J. S., 176
Dwight, Timothy, 5–10

Emerson, Ralph Waldo, 3, 108, 110, 116, 160, 164, 201, 234, 241, 266, 292, 293, 306, 314, 315; as coterie writer, 3; departure from norms of sanity in work of, 234; and discount trade, 45; as ex-Unitarian, 49, 50; late national audience of, 286–87, 296; as lecturer, 60, 296, 298–99; localized circulation of Essays, 74; scorn of, for Jacksonian democracy, 61–63; and social consciousness, 56–57, 65–66
Evangelist, 185
Evans, Augusta Jane, 300
Everett, Edward, 66, 308

“Fanny Fern” (Sara Payson Willis Parton), 308
Farmer’s Weekly Museum, 15
Farquhar, Sir Walter, 212
Fay, Theodore, 36
Fields, James T.: campaign of, against sectionalism, 178; and coercion of press, 181–86; as editor of Atlantic, 186–87; and public relations, 171, 179–80, 187, 301; and use of book excerpts, 179; see also Ticknor and Fields
Flaubert, Gustave, 243, 261
Forbes, John Murray, 60, 62
Freneau, Phillip, 101, 105
Friendly Club, 26
Fugitive Slave Law, 64
Fuller, Margaret, 211–12, 265

Gentleman’s Magazine, 87
Gilmer, Francis P., 293
Godey, Louis, 158
Godey’s Lady’s Book, 91, 241
Gothic novel, 19
Gough, John B., 306
“Grace Greenwood” (Sara Jane Lip- pincott), 181, 212, 300
Graham, George R., 171, 289, 290; and Longfellow, 158, 288; on Poe, 86, 88; and rates to poets, 101, 109, 158, 288
Graham’s Magazine, 65, 86, 101, 109, 127, 128, 158, 176, 177, 179, 241, 288
Gray, Thomas, 50
Greeley, Horace, 175, 184, 265, 299, 307; and controlled book reviews, 183–86; on Melville, 212–14
Griswold, Rufus W.: “libelled” by press, 185–86; and puffs for publishers, 172–78
Halleck, Fitz-Greene, 44, 77, 101
Harper and Brothers, 43, 73, 76, 80, 127, 174, 176, 179, 183, 185, 200, 215, 255, 278, 310; and “canned” reviews, 232–33; and cheap Longfellow edition, 131, 160, 162–63; criticism of Poe, 86, 89; as Melville’s publisher, 193–94, 211, 237; as “merchandisers,” 76; promotion efforts of, 47; as publishing leader, 78, 79
Harper’s Weekly, 180, 299, 302, 308
Harris, Miriam, 300
Hart and Baird, 174
Harte, Bret, 116
Hartford (Conn.), 12
Haskell, D. N., 176
Hawthorne, Nathaniel, 68, 69, 70, 72, 144, 170, 173, 177, 197, 212, 225, 230, 232, 239, 241, 261, 265, 266, 272, 275, 294, 314; compromises of, for market, 296; and “mad” fictional character, 234; as magazine drudge, 74; Melville’s esteem for, 249–50; Poe’s opinion of, 92–93; reaction of, to middle class, 61; secondary job of, 68–70, 294; and social comment, 132–33; suit against Brook Farm, 52; Twice-Told Tales and depression, 50, 57
Hayes, Rutherford B., 198
Hillard, George S., 173
Hoffman, Charles Fenno, 93
Holland, Josiah G., 66, 306
Holmes, Mary Jane, 300
Holmes, Oliver Wendell, 66, 106, 164, 179, 245, 300
Home Journal, 180, 244
Hooker, Herman, 177
Houghton, Mifflin, 171
Howells, William Dean, 268, 306, 309
Independent, 185
Ingraham, J. H., 308
Irving, Ebenezer, 32, 43
Irving, Washington, 17, 25, 28, 29, 30, 32, 34, 39, 45, 68, 69, 74, 77, 118, 208, 273, 295, 312, 313; discounted book of, 44; enduring popularity of, 47, 48; fear of public scorn, 119–20; as gentleman author, 47; as hack writer, 49, 57, 66; heyday of, 37; income of, 33; and “merely literary” books, 35; and production costs, 45; regular output of, 29; as self-publisher, 33
Jefferson, Thomas, 9, 14, 16, 17, 293
Jewett, John P., 302
Keats, John, 110
Kennedy, J. P., 37, 38, 39, 45, 46, 79
Kerr, Orpheus C. (R. H. Newell), 308
Knickerbocker, 50, 125
Ladies’ Companion, 125
Lane, William, 19, 24, 27
Lanier, Sidney, 104, 108
Lea and Blanchard, 39
Legare, H. S., 293
Leslie’s Weekly, 308, 312
Lieber, Francis, 173
Lindsay and Blakiston, 173
Literary American, 233
Literary World, 177, 179
Little, Brown and Company, 302
Locofoco meetings, 50
London Spectator, 210, 244
London Times, 212
Longfellow, Henry Wadsworth, 50, 57, 170, 173, 178, 179, 185, 208, 273, 289, 308; annuity to, from publisher, 106; autobiographic novel of, 111, 144–46; as balladmonger and sonneteer, 124–27; book sales of, 114–15, 140, 160–61; changing perspective of, 130–32; Christus of, as apologia, 146–50; defense of poetry by, 120; didacticism of, 138–40; diffidence of, toward readers, 119–20, 129; and doctrine of resignation, 141–43; faith of, in Art, 151–54; financial stability of, 57–59; gloom in work of, 151; and Graham’s Magazine, 101, 109, 157–58, 288; identity of self in work, 136–38; income of, 112–15, 128, 155–67; lyric vs. non-lyric poems of, 113–14; and payment dispute with Graham, 288; Poe’s jealousy of, 88; and romanticism, 49, 134; self-financing of, 159–60; self-reliance of, 117; social station of, 116–17; as translator, 115
Longman’s (publishers), 29
INDEX

Longworth (publishers), 79
Lowell, James Russell, 50, 52, 56, 101, 106, 170, 181, 290

Magazines, 36, 64–66, 91, 98, 125, 157, 158, 242, 257, 262, 295; as boon to poets, 102–4; early essay-periodical, 14–15, 16–18; and Poe, 84–87; prestige and improvement of, 84–87; serialization of fiction in, 287–88; use of copyright by, 103; see also individual entries

Marryat, Captain Francis, 237–38
Martineau, Harriet, 54
Mason Brothers, 183–84
Massachusetts General Hospital, 51

Methodist Magazine, 36
Miller, John, 76, 80
Minerva Press, 19, 20, 24, 27
Mitchell, Donald Grant, 245
Monthly Anthology, 292
Moore, Thomas, 108
Morrill Land Grant Act, 305
Monroe, James, 302

Munroe and Francis, 310
Murray, John, 29, 76, 79, 209, 212, 215, 218–19, 227
Neal, John, 47, 79
Newspapers: as large industry, 186; and reviews for token payment, 172–86; and feud with book publishers, 181–86; see also individual entries

New World, 126
New York Advertiser, 175
New York Courier, 173, 180, 185
New York Ledger, 66, 151, 274, 276, 299, 308–9
New York Mirror, 179
New York Sunday Mercury, 308
New York Times, 173
New York Weekly, 308
New Yorker, 173
North American, 175
North American Review, 65, 128
Norton, Caroline Elizabeth Sarah, 173
Novel: cultural status of, 28, 215; English and American formats for, 70, 287; influence of serialization on, 287–88; Godwinian and Richardsonian, 25–28

Osgood, James R., 299
Osgood-Houghton, Mifflin, 106
Owen, John, 158–63

Paine, Robert Treat, 12–16, 23, 28
Paine, Thomas, 9, 14
Palgrave, F. T., 108
Parker, Theodore, 56–58, 60, 186
Parsons, Thomas W., 108
Patronage: job-holding, 7, 9–10, 23; subscription, 8–13; traditional, 6, 7, 59
Paulding, James K., 45, 46, 295
Parrington, V. L., 132
Peabody family, 60
Peck, George, 214, 217
“Peter Parley” (Samuel G. Goodrich), 9, 176
INDEX

Peterson, T. B., 176

Peterson's, 244

Phillips, Sampson and Company, 164, 176, 183, 302

Phinneys (publishers), 36

Philadelphia Ledger, 175

Pickering, Timothy, 16

Politics in journalism, 15, 16

Pond, J. B., 307

Poe, Edgar Allan, 108, 115, 241, 244, 294, 312; acceptance of the general reader, 95–98; bitterness of, toward publishers, 79; departure from norms of sanity in work, 234; contempt of, for bourgeoisie, 61, 66; as editor, 69, 85–86, 92–94; and emphasis on diversity, 90–91; and envy of bound books, 87–88; Eureka, 84–85; financial difficulties of, 57, 87–88; and magazines, 84–87; and pamphlet publication, 87, 88; and romanticism, 49, 50; and unsold works, 74

Poetry: early status of, 11–14, 28; economics of, 33, 45, 100–101, 106, 109, 112–15, 288; Longfellow's campaign for respectability for, 121–23; and magazine publication, 102–4; narrative, 101–2; distinction of types of, 11, 100–111, 115–16, 120, 121, 124, 134–37; and romanticism, 49–50; subscription, 8–10, 13; unpaid for, 12, 289

Port Folio, 16, 17

Printing: localized, 15–16, 34–36, 169; pirated editions, 31; power presses, 46; stereotype plates, 41, 46, 156–57, 159, 286; wages, 45

Publishing: amateur, 77–78; Boston specializations, 302; British-American contrast in, 30–40; and “canned” reviews, 79, 171–78, 232–33; casebinding, 46; centers of, 12, 17–19, 35, 160–70; “correspondents,” 40–42; and distribution problems, 8, 18, 34–36, 40, 41, 44, 78, 167–71, 285; economics of, 26, 33–34, 39–40, 41, 44–48, 50, 81; effect of cultural factors on, 303–7; expansion in, 164; and exploitation of British writers, 31, 80, 86; and jobbers, 42–43; and literary fair of 1804, 43; localized, 16, 34–35, 160–70; and multiple imprint system, 38, 40, 41; New England boom in, 49–67; and pirated editions, 31; and power presses, 46; printing costs in, 33, 45; and promotion techniques, 39–40, 46–47, 79, 160, 171–72, 293; use of stereotype plates in, 41, 46, 156–57, 159, 286; subscription, 12, 21, 38–39, 312

Putnam, George P., 78, 194, 200, 299, 301, 302, 312

Putnam's, 179, 194, 257, 301, 302–3

Raymond, Henry J., 173

Redding and Company, 162

Redpath, James, 307

Religious publishing houses, 310

Richardson and Lord, 34

Richmond Times, 175

Riley, James Whitcomb, 106–7, 273

Ripley, George, 172, 183, 186, 235, 239, 291, 308

Rowson, Susannah, 79, 251, 273; adaptation of, to America, 22; Charlotte Temple, 20–22; didacticism of, 23–24; as professional fiction writer, 20

Russell, Benjamin, 14

Salem Advertiser, 173, 212

Salmagundi, 20

Sargent, Epes, 172, 179

Saturday Evening Post, 175

Saunders, Frederick, 174

Scott, Sir Walter, 29–31, 71, 80, 285, 286–87, 293

Scribner's, 306, 312

Sedgwick, Catharine Maria, 79, 87, 88, 89

Shelley, Percy Bysshe, 104, 110, 234

Simms, William Gilmore, 79

Southern Literary Messenger, 301

Southworth, Mrs. E. D. E. N., 276, 308

Sparks, Jared, 38, 170

Stedman, Arthur, 101, 194, 315

Stereotyping, 41, 46, 156–57, 159, 286

Stoddard, Richard H., 108

Stowe, Harriet Beecher, 300–301, 302, 312

Stylus, 94
Tablet, 14, 15

Taylor, Edward, 108, 181

Thomas, Isaiah, 12, 14, 78

Thomas, Moses, 32, 34, 44-45, 48

Thoreau, Henry David, 49-50, 58, 74, 108, 133, 266, 288, 297, 314

Ticknor, William D., 45, 118-19, 163, 170, 310

Ticknor and Fields, 168-87, 290, 299, 302, 310-12; development of national market by, 171; promotion efforts of, 171-87; and press coercion, 181-82

Ticknor, Reed, and Fields, 163

Transcendentalism, 49-50, 52-53, 60, 116, 127

Trinitarians, 52

Trumbull, John, 5, 8, 9

Tuckerman, Henry T., 108, 172

Tuckerman, Joseph, 51

Tyler, Royall, 16

Twain, Mark, 68, 70, 210-11, 241, 308, 315

Underwood, Francis, 174, 183-86

Unitarians, 49-60

United States Book Company, 192

Urban pauperism, 51

Urban machine world, 141-42

Van Winkle, C. S., 32, 40, 77

Verplanck, G. C., 69

Ward, Artemus, 308

Warner, Susan, 314

Webster, Daniel, 59

Weems, Parson, 18, 19, 38-39, 47, 78

Wells and Lilly, 42

Whipple, Edwin P., 172-81

White, Richard Grant, 180-81, 186, 198

Whitman, Sarah Helen, 92

Whitman, Walt, 101, 110, 266, 297, 315

Whittier, John Greenleaf, 50, 108, 113, 170, 290

Wiley, Charles, 76, 77-78, 81, 211

Wiley and Halstead, 42-43

Wiley and Putnam, 211

Wilkes, Charles, 72, 173

Willis, Nathaniel P., 17, 86, 88, 170, 313

Wirt, William, 293

Wood, Sarah Sayward Barrell Keating, 24

Wordsworth, William, 49, 50, 293

Young, Edward, 108