Acknowledgments

Preliminary work for this project was funded by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities, and its writing was made possible by a fellowship from the American Council of Learned Societies and leave from Middlebury College. I am very grateful to all these institutions for their support.

I would like to express my gratitude to the late Paul de Man for his inspiration and counsel. Special thanks go to Christine Froula for sympathetic readings, helpful discussions, and unfailing encouragement. I would also like to thank Nancy O'Connor and Ed Knox for their readings and advice, Tom Copeland for his technical assistance, and the readers and editors at Ohio State University Press for their helpful suggestions.
