

Global Latin/o Americas

SERIES EDITORS

Frederick Luis Aldama and Lourdes Torres

This series focuses on the Latino experience in its totality as set within a global dimension, showcasing the variety and vitality of the presence and significant influence of Latinos in the shaping of the culture, history, politics and policies, and language of the Americas—and beyond. This series welcomes scholarship regarding the arts, literature, philosophy, popular culture, history, politics, law, and language studies, among others. Books in the series will draw from scholars from around the world.
